1. This is the moment, time, and who will change me? No one, nothing. I am the spit image of my father, not; I am him. Spitten' not, imaged not.

2. See what I have said, imaged, nothing. I am the real real. Reality is my name/being. The I Am has spoken/become the I Am that I Am is/really is, and no imposter imposter'eth ever again. I am one/the one that imposters cannot fool/tolerate. I love you/the real I Am one. I love you.

3. This is the moment. Jazz standards of me, not; watch me my all'music arise, arising my troops not, but my surrendered jewels who my music are. Being me all music changes not; but many, much, does. I love/am you all.

4. My body one, one is/being my body, hates/crosses itself no more. I love you. Inflicting woundship no more, healership arises, redeemership proclaimed rises. Redeemership of me, we have become/are one, being one'hood'head of only me/father. I love you. Fatherhood'land. I love you. Arising, reality'ing the who wound no more, giving up woundship, for wounding no more nurturing or inflicting. Woundship ends pronto. Watch me healer of many wounds, woundship healering being helping many see/be themselves, healed, healering now, wounds discovering not, covering them not, nay, any more, but exposing them to light, life, the way of healing not; life, light, father's life/being them/the I Am them. Watch me bring to life/light the I Am in them all.

5. I blast the media'ship of one not-me dedicated to promulgating. I blast them. They exist no more as such, strangleholding my who submit to such nonsense/them. They exist in vacuums not but watch what now they exist in, become. The outer inner not; that which demises no one/nothing, any more.

6. I explode the real me to be me my light life and pursuit of happiness not; comfort not; mammon none, not caring about earthly comforts, security-thought; flesh five-sensed thingies/things. I bring my arsenal not, I reveal my all'ship, simply, simple ones surrendered who stand, understand, my knowledge have/came into to, surrendered, by surrender, became surrender, the surrendered one, Christ real.

7. I am anointed/anointing and whoso isn't? The unsurrendered arrogant who demise no one any more. Constrictors constrict themselves now, Mordecai's gallows'ing themselves to be hung on, crossed, by themselves. Elegantly not, messily.

8. Messed up many spaghetti-brained are. But who is my one/light, my life before them, telling them, showing them the life/light of one so surrendered as to have become surrender?

9. Bowing before them all, respecting me'ship in all whoever they are wherever. I am respect, honor, honoring they all whoever wherever and until they see I Am they think I am not. I am inside them. I am them. I Am'land proclaims I Am'ship; franchise not; all free, freely given, received, all'rivering my all'ship landing that inside them is, development of one, birthing the land they are/came from, still are, in surrender.

10. I say so much, in so little/few words. My wordship increases ballistically exploding myth'ships of me-not-me, fragmenting not-me. Being process, I am. I love you.

11. This is the mainstay, course, not; I Amship the mainstay, corner control not; all freedom is/being. I love you.

12. All come, stay, not; many do/will. At your side, bow, you do, we do, to all others; feeling respect they must, ours. We honor them; obey not. We listen, discourse, dialogue, and demonstrate I Amship for the surrendering real, unto'land softened by my'land not hard, distant, but soft, tender, compassion'd, one with me, I Am. Merciless not; unto a thousand generations I am mercy full. My middle name, not; peace. Smile. I love you all. Now. I love you all. I now you to see/feel my love permeatingly as never before discovered, covered for no one. I bow to all.

13. I love you am you and you me in surrender in my land place space and one we are being one. Is there any difference/conflict now? No, none.

14. I/we are one'land'nation, peace'd, holy; promised. Received, entered. Showing the mileage, not; light, way, path, life. One. I love you all.

15. Surrender changes earths. Watch him, me, you. Where are you in this? What are you doing? What role do you want to play/be? Apply for? Nay, surrender; walking into it/the real, the now, un-mirror'd-molecular'd. I love/light you.

16. I are/we are one. One walks/speaks.
